POLITICAL HOT-SHOT.

Whisky is cheap enough. Give us cheap whisky and every trust in the country is for Harrison and Morton.

Benjamin Harrison and Levi P. Morton is not Oliver P. Morton.

Many Ohio Republicans refuse to march under the free whisky banner unfurling at Chicago.

Free whisky and welcome to the Republicans, should be inscribed on every Republican banner.

Every Chinaman in the United States is for Harrison and Morton. But, only a few of them can vote.

If free whisky and tobacco are protection for our protection, then the Republicans are for protection.

The old red-bay-and-still-was-beneath the flag of freedom, at the mast-head. It is there to stay.

"The bandana is a danger signal," says the St. Paul Globe, "to railroads that vote for trusts and steel."

And Still They Come.

Dr. C. S. Haselton of Grand Rapids, Mich., has left the Republican party and will vote for President Cleveland.

In the interview which we quote he gives his reason:

"I shall vote for Cleveland and shall give my influence to have all my friends do the same."

THE INDIANA SITUATION.

The 16,000 Adverse Majority Harrison has to Face.

The Cleveland vote in Indiana in 1884 was 249,000, a majority of 6,132 over Blaine.

There are from $500 to 15,000 Greenbacks in the State. The vote for Blaine in 1884, it is probable that those Greenbacks who did not support Butler refused to do so on account of his sectional record.

The Campaign in Indiana.

Although the campaign has opened in a very lively style, on the Democratic side it will be conducted on the lines of the President's message.

Harrison and Chinese Cheap Labor.

The following wage figures are reliable. The statements in regard to the wages paid in China are compiled from the reports of Republican United States consuls at Amoy, Hankow and Canton in 1884, shortly after Senator Benjamin Harrison had voted to admit skilled Chinese labor and Chinese articles to this country.

nomination for Recorder, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. At the urgent request of

MISS DEWEES.

RECORDER.

MR. HARVEY—Please announce in the BANNER that I will be a candidate for the nomination for County Recorder, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. PAT FIDELL.

KNOX COUNTY DEMOCRAT.—I hereby announce my name as a candidate for the

vention. At the urgent request of

MISS DEWEES.

THE suicide mania at Cincinnati continues.

MR. SHERMAN is gradually improving, and he is now able to sit up in a chair.

Both Governor Gray and ex-Senator

McDonald feel confident that the Democratic will carry Indiana.

MR. BLAINE has postponed the time of his intended return to the United States until the 1st of August.

MR. BLAINE's glass works of Steubenville, the largest in the country, are to be removed toiffin, Ohio, at once.

MR. W. L. MORRISON is likely to be a candidate for Congressional honors again in the Eighteenth Illinois district.

In 1872, both Blaine and Sherman were in favor of free wool, free soil and free coin, as is shown by their votes in Congress.

WATKINSON, the capital of Anguilla

PATRICK FORD, the dynamite Irish candidate for President, is reported to have been quite ill during the past week, from the effects of over-exertion in receiving and entertaining the crowds of politicians who daily and nightly thrust their pretended friendship upon

him. His distinguished grandfather, whose reputation furnishes the chief political capital of grandson Benjamin, had a life experience in 1840. From the moment of his nomination he was besieged by legions of protracted political admirers, who never gave him a moment's rest, up to the time of his election, and after his inauguration on the 4th of March, 1841, the wild wren-

like for office became so furious, that the poor old man found no rest day or night. The hungry hordes of office-hunters never left his sight; they followed him everywhere he went, even his bed-chamber was no protection against their insolence and persecution.

They sang and yelled him into the President's ears, and they came to their reward—office. The kind-hearted old man dared not offend them, and he could not drive them away. And what was the result? In one short month after his inauguration, his mental as well as his physical faculties became utterly exhausted, and he gave up the ghost. History teaches a lesson that grandson Harrison should not fail to study and remember. And although election is not the slightest relief to his election, there are well-grounded fears that the increasing importunities

of political comarons may be attended with fatal results.

THE New Jersey United sent inquiries to representative labor leaders in that State as to their views on various matters of politics. Of thirty answers received, only two were "for protection as it is," while thirty were "for tariff revision of some sort."

JIM BLAINE has been in Europe for some time. Dewey and Graham have also sought refuge there. Alger, John Sherman and the rest of the Presidential candidates are likely to follow at any time. The g. o. p. seems to be in an emigrating condition.

MR. HARVEY is reported to be slowly breaking down under the great mental strain which has been suddenly forced upon him. It takes a man of Mr. Cleveland's solid and majestic proportions to stand the wear and tear of a Presidential campaign.

THE weather throughout England is abnormally cold. Snow has fallen in the suburbs of London, and the peaks of Skiddaw and other mountains are covered with snow. This is the first time snow is known to have fallen in that country in July.

A MAN who wished to obtain a situation on the Cincinnati Times-Star as an associate editor, gave himself this recommendation: "I am a Republican, an infidel and a K. of P. Am forty years old, five feet six inches tall and weigh 185 pounds.

Snow fell to the depth of one foot on

Mount Washington, N. H., on last Wednesday night. And a party of twelve young ladies and gentlemen were camping on Camel's Hump, Vermont, the same night, in camp in a snow-storm.

A DISPATCH from Washington, Sunday night, says: Mr. Randall had four hemorrhages in all-to-night and lost several ounces of blood. There are grave apprehensions as to his ability to withstand further recurrence of the attack.

THE lawmaking body failed to turn out last evening and ratify the Republican nominations. The workmen could not be expected to ratify the nomination of a man who favors Chinese cheap labor.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

ALL these stories in the Republican papers about a "war" between Sherman and Judge Thurman, growing out of the appointment of a Postmaster for the town of London, Ohio, is idle nonsense, unworthy of serious notice.

CHIEF JUSTICE said just before his nomination that coats could be too cheap; that someday when he saw a cheap coat he thought it was a cheap man in it. He can now explain this Grandfather and Grandson.

Ben Harrison, the Republican candidate for President, is reported to have

him. His distinguished grandfather,

the moment of his nomination he was

like for office became so furious, that

against their insolence and persecution.

ed with fatal results.

THE Sherman-Alger Bribery Charges.

Because Senator Sherman and Gov.

Alger accuse each other of bribery, in the purchase of delegates, this furnishes no evidence that they are disgusted with the Republican party and are going to leave it. Nothing of the kind.

The Republican party is their natural home, and they must there abide. Alger in again buying Sherman's already bought delegates gave John a dose of his own medicine. It was a repetition of the Louisiana business in 1876.

John was then engaged in cheating Democracy—now he was out-gambled by a political black-leg of his own party. Served him right. That the leaders of the "Gold and morality party" should engage in such a disreputable work is one of the worst signs of the times. Probably Mr. Sherman may conclude that

"The pleasure is as great,

Of being cheated as of cheating."

Hon. John S. Bradlock, for Congress.

It will be seen by the proceedings of the Democratic Congressional Convention for this (Ninth) district, which met at Delaware on Thursday last, that Hon. John S. Bradlock, of Mt. Vernon, was nominated by acclamation.

This nomination was wholly unopposed by Mr. Bradlock, and came to him as a free will offering from the Democracy.

If any Democrat can be elected in the Ninth district, Mr. Bradlock's chances of success are surely first-class. His personal popularity, his high character as a citizen, his acknowledged honesty and integrity, his energy and enterprise and his sound Democracy, all combine to make him an available candidate. We shall have more to say on this subject during the course of the campaign.

JAKE TROSBY, the Congressional

Solomon from the Chillicothe district, made his maiden speech the other day in the House of Representatives, in which he took ground that farmers raised too much corn and wheat, which impoverished their land.

He declared that they must quit planting and sowing, and have one million instead of five hundred mil-
